Subject Docket #EPA-HQ-ORD-2012-0276_Zamzow comments 1

To Whom It May Concern:

Attached please find my comments on the EPA document "Assessment of Potential Mining Impacts on Salmon Ecosystems of Bristol Bay" (EPA 910-R-12-004a, May 2012).

Comments are provided in letter format. An Excel sheet with further discussion and full reference citations is attached to accompany the letter. All references in the letter and Excel sheet are attached in topical folders, with the exception of Ghaffari et al 2011 and PLP 2012, which were extensively referenced in the Assessment and the EPA has on hand. While some of the attached documents have been referenced by the EPA in their Assessment, and while I do not necessarily suggest that each reference be followed exhaustively by the EPA, it is important that I provide them to back up my statements and comments. A final folder, containing references on the "Failure" topic will arrive by a second email, due to size limitations.

I appreciate the work that has gone into compiling information from diverse sources, and the effort to bring them together in a meaningful context. I urge the EPA to use this document, in the upcoming final form, as a foundation for any potential further actions.
